be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominee of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, MILWAUKEE, February 19, 1880.

A State Convention of delegates representing the Republican party of Wisconsin, and of all who will co-operate with them in supporting the Nominees of the party, is hereby called to meet at the Capitol in Madison, at twelve o'clock M., on Wednesday, May 6th, 1880, for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket of ten electors to be supported by the party at the next Presidential election, and also to select twenty delegates, (two from each Congressional District and four from the State at large), to represent the Republican party of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention, which is called to meet at Chicago on the 3d day of June, A. D. 1880, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Each Senate and Assembly District is entitled to two delegates in the Convention.

Milwaukee has raised $5,000 for the Hayden must think revenge is sweet.

He insists on lecturing.

Some of the clubs which are being formed will prove only stuffed clubs. They won't hurt anybody.

Now that St. Louis cannot have either the Republican or the Democratic conventions, it clings to the fond hope of getting a mint, but it may be only a mint julep after all.

A Mormon missionary has settled in Chicago, and commenced the work of organizing a church. It won't attract many Chicago sinners, as he don't believe in a man living with more than one woman at a time.

It keeps the Europeans busy offering thanks and sending congratulations on the escapes of their sovereigns from assassins.
The Common Council of London have tired of it, and have voted down a motion for an address of congratulation to the Czar.

Chicago's Health Commissioner insists that the increase of the death rate in that city during the past year is not due to the muddy, wretched condition of the streets, but to "a peculiar climatic condition." Now if he will only go a step further, and find the cause of this "peculiar climatic condition" he will probably find it to be the filth in the streets.

The recent decision in the telegraph suit in New York is in favor of the Western Union Company, and is one of the most important ever rendered, as it gives to this company the exclusive right to the principle upon which all the electric sounders now in use are founded. If this decision stands the test of the Supreme Court, to which it will doubtless be taken, it will give a power of monopoly to this company, which will affect all other companies seriously. It is claimed that the Western Union will under this decision seek to enjoin all who are infringing on this patent, and force them to pay a royalty, or give bonds in case of an appeal. The stock of the company has jumped upward, in view of the new power thus placed in its hands.

The attempt made by the Democrats in the House to gag the mouth of the ex-Vice President of the Confederacy, would be startling and sensational, were it not that the party was daily doing so many strangely inconsistent and unaccountable acts, as to lead the public to expect anything, and to be surprised at nothing. The same men who had clustered about him during the rebellion, now with the treach-ery and fickleness, which ever mark their policy, turn upon him, and try to throttle his speech. It would have been cowardly to have thus tried to choke down one who had been a life-long opponent; but to refuse to listen to the words of one who had been their idol and their leader, was wisely so. The physical condition of the old man makes their action seem still more despi-cable. Palated and shattered, imprisoned in his chair by helplessness, he seemed a feeble opponent, but they caught from his eye a flash of the pent-up wrath, and they feared to hear truth even from the lips of infamy.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, boldly and shrewdly forced open the door for free speech, in spite of opposition, and the Democrats were obliged to listen to the venerable senator. He gave them a withering, sarcastic rebuke for their revolutionary plans of forcing the Government to terms by starving, and protested against the claim that it was true Democratic doctrine to seek redress of grievance by withholding appropriations. It was contrary to the teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson to fasten riders to appropriation bills. The old man made their ears tingle, and though they listened with impatience, yet they had to listen.

A PROFITLESS DAY.

In the House of Representatives at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The House spent another profitless day on the rules, making but very slight progress. The greater portion of the day was occupied with debate of a banishment character, the purport of which was to make the soldier constituency of the different members who spoke appreciate the effort made on behalf of the ex-soldiers. This debate arose on a proposition to set apart Friday of each week for private bills. A great number of members desired to have pension bills always given the preference. In the course of the debate it was made to appear that if the House devoted its entire time to the consideration of the pension cases on its docket, doing no other business, the session could not terminate before Dec. 1.
The House adopted the example of the Senate, and adjourned over until Monday.
To-morrow will be occupied by the Democrats in consulting with the delegations from the different cities advocating the claims of the different cities relative to the location of the National Democratic Convention, and in discussing the Presidential outlook.

FEAR ITS EFFECTS.

A Changing Sentiment in the Minnesota Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—It begins to appear that there are two opinions among the Democrats regarding the expediency of stealing the seat of Representative Washburn, of Minnesota. There are a few Democrats in Congress, and quite a number out of it who are inclined to oppose the theft because they fear its effects upon "the party." Some of these gentlemen do not scruple to say that Mr. Springer and his Committee are in danger of overdoing the business. It is reported that among those who take this view of the matter are several members of the National Democratic Committee, which is to meet in this city next Monday. It may be doing an injustice to Mr. Tilden, but whenever, since the days of Cronin's Electoral College, a scheme to steal the vote of a Republican State is found to be at the foot, people are sure to say that Mr.
Tilden is at the bottom of it. It may be remembered that the conspiracy to reverse the result of the Maine election was openly imputed to Mr. Tilden. The same is now said of this last attempt to steal the vote of a Republican State. It is reported upon what appears to be pretty good authority that a man who was a trusted political agent of Mr.
Tilden before and during the campaign of 1876, and who still claims to enjoy confidential relations with that gentleman, is deep in the affair.

CUBA.

A Creole Conspiracy—General Grant and the Spanish War.

New York, Feb. 20.—A Havana letter says that the Government has discovered a conspiracy among the Creoles for uprising in Vuelta Abajo, and secured six of the ring leaders, who were employed on a railroad. Three thousand Remington rifles and a vast quantity of fixed ammunition, arms and munitions were smuggled in from the United States, and the insurrection was to begin on the first week of March.

General Grant presented $500 to the servants of the palace where he was entertained. The following story is told of General Grant and the railroad smash-up in Cuba: "The engine was off the track on one side, the coaches diagonally across it, and the rear of the train off on the other side, and nearly everybody was on the ground, gazing round in the dim starlight, when General Grant appeared at the door of his coach, and, after a preparatory puff at his cigar, asked if any damage had been done."

A SOLEMN BURIAL.

The Funeral of the Victims of the Russian Winter Palace Explosion.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 20.—The funeral of the soldiers who were killed by the explosion in the Winter Palace, and of those who have subsequently died of the wounds there received, took place to-day. The spectacle was very impressive. The greatest part of the regiment composing the Imperial Guard at St. Petersburg were marshaled for the ceremony. The bodies of the dead, placed in numbers of four upon gun-carriages, preceded by a regiment of the Imperial Guard marching with arms reversed, with a band playing a funeral dirge, were conveyed from the chapel where the religious services over them had been performed to the cemetery on the east side of the Neva, and where there interred with the usual military ceremonies, platoons of the infantry driving sods over the graves as the earth was thrown upon the coffins. The attitude of the populace as the funeral cortège passed from the Winter Palace to the cemetery was ominously cold and threatening.

PRESIDENTIAL.

The Canvass of the Maryland Legislature—A Trusted Friend of Senator Blaine's.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—A canvass of the members of the Maryland Legislature yesterday, on the Presidential question, resulted as follows: Bayard, 53; Tilden, 10; Seymour, 6; Hancock, 4; Thurman, 1; any available man, 8. The Republican members expressed their preferences as follows: Blaine, 13; Grant, 5; anti-Grant, 3; Sherman, 1; any available man, 1.

One of Blaine's most trusted friends, a Maine Congressman, says that although he has not been authorized to say so by Mr. Blaine, yet he is confident that it is no part of the Blaine campaign to attack the Grant movement and try to kill it. He is confident that such a course on Blaine's part would antagonize all of Grant's friends, and do more harm to his own cause than good. The story is, therefore, utterly discredited.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 20.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor closed its annual session to-day after electing and installing the following: Grand Dictator, W. E. Howe, La Crosse; Vice Dictator, A. W. Baldwin, Janesville; Assistant Dictator, E. W. Clark, Neenah; Reporter, W. H. Brazier, Milwaukee; Treasurer, J. O. Thayer, Sheboygan; Chaplain, George E. Fernald, Watrous; C. D. Howard, Milwaukee; Guardsman, C. A. Estberg, Waukegan; Sentinel, H.
Caswell, Oshkosh; Past Dictator, J. H. Hauser, Fond du Lac; Trustees, three years, J. M. F.
Kummler, Milwaukee; one year, A. C. Allen, Milwaukee; Representatives to the Supreme Lodge, two years, C. H. Ross, Milwaukee; T. P. Sawin, Janesville; Alternate, Elihu Coleman, Fond du Lac; Medical Examiner, E. C. Gray, M. D., Fond du Lac. The next annual meeting will be held in this city.

A BIG BLAZE.

New York Visited Last Night with a Destructive Fire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—A large five-story iron front building, 334 and 336 Broadway, was burned this evening. The losses are estimated as follows: Hazen, Todd & Co., Importers, $400,000; Dickertoff, Ruffler & Co., tailors' trimmings, $250,000; James Wilde Jr., & Co., manufacturing tailors, $350,000. Loss of building, $50,000. Insurance unknown.

COWLEY'S SENTENCE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Rev Edward D Cowley, late manager of the Shepherd's Fold, who was convicted of cruelly treating and starving children under his care, was arraigned this morning for sentence.
Recorder Smyth gave the extreme penalty of the law, one year in the State Prison and $250 fine, to stand committed to jail at the expiration of his sentence until the fine is paid, one day for each dollar. The prisoner was taken to the Tombs.

FEARING A STRIKE.

LA SALLE, Ill., Feb. 20.—A general apprehension of a great strike among the coal miners of the Western coal fields about the 1st of March prevails among manufacturing circles. LaSalle manufacturers and other large consumers of coal are laying in large supplies in anticipation of such an emergency. The miners of Illinois will hold a State Convention at Springfield on the 21st of March to organize themselves into a State union.

SKIPPED.

EAU CLAIRE, Feb. 20.—W. H. Best, who came to this city last summer from the State of New York, and established himself as an Insurance and Loan agent, has been detected in crook-doing in some of his business transactions, and has skipped to unknown parts.

EXPLOSION.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Advices from Valparaiso to the 27th ult. state that, by an explosion of shells in the arsenal, twenty persons were killed and half the building destroyed.

IRISH AID.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Herald famine fund now amounts to $233,300.

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—The House unanimously voted $100,000 for the Irish relief fund.

SUICIDE.

DARLINGTON, Feb. 20.—Frank Wahn, aged 23 years, a resident of Seymour, suc-cided last night by hanging. The deceased was married on Sunday last, and was expecting to go west in a few days. No cause is assigned.

AMONG THE MAGAZINES.

Lippincott's Magazine for March opens with a description of the Lakes of Minnesota, with their healthful and picturesque summer resorts, which are already much frequented by Northern tourists, and which, judging from this article, and its attractive illustrations, deserve to be better known. There are two other illustrated papers in the number, the IXth Chapter of Dr. Oswald's "Summerland Sketches," which treats of Yucatan, and the conclusion of Edward King's account of "Old and New Rouen."

"The American Suez" is the title of an article which will be read with special interest, on account of the subject, and the able summary which it gives of the arguments for and against each of the proposed routes for a canal to connect the waters of the Gulf of Mexico with those of the Pacific Ocean. The writer shows a personal familiarity with the country, and the maps inserted in the text will do much to assist the reader in forming an opinion on this vexed question.
Another timely paper is devoted to the "Ute Matter," and evidently emanates from Colorado, where the feeling on the subject is naturally strongest, and the decision of Congress and the Government is awaited with impatience. "At the Foot of the Sierras" is not a mere descriptive article, but contains some capital sketches of life and manners in the most beautiful region of the West.

The well-written and suggestive description of "Decorative Art and its Dogama," by M. G. Van Rensselaer, is concluded in this number. There is a fresh instalment of "Adam and Eve," by the author of "Dorothy Fox," a very pathetic and realistic story, entitled "A Mother's Vision," by Sarah Winter Kellogg; and a light little Italian Sketch, by the author of "Silver and Gold," "Nicola," "Playing a Part," by J. Brander Matthews, is a witty and neatly constructed comedy, well adapted for amateur acting. The poetry is by Paul Hayne and Howard Glyndon, and a large space, as usual, is devoted to the "Monthly Gossip" and the "Literature of the Day."

The March Atlantic has a very apper-zing list of contents. Mr. Howells's serial, "The Undiscovered Country," grows in interest every month, and bids fair to surpass in power "The Lady of the Aroostook." Charles Dudley Warner contributes a delightful biographical and critical essay on Washington Irving, which will make readers love both Irving and Warner better.
There are two excellent short stories, "Accidentally Overheard," by Horace E.
Scudder, and "Hannah Dawson's Child," by Lucy Lee Pleasants.
The second installment of "Reminiscences of Washington" includes much personal and social as well as political anecdote concerning the four years of John Quincy Adams's administration. Francis H. Underwood has an engaging account of "Egypt under the Pharaohs." Richard Grant White writes of "English in England," citing numerous examples of words used incorrectly or queried by the English, and making a curiously interesting article. There are poems by T. B. Aldrich, Miss Sarah O.
Jewett, not the actress, but the author of "Deephaven," Celia Thaxter, Oscar Lighton, and Louise Chandler Moulton. Several noteworthy new books are reviewed, and a diversified Contributors' Club completes a very good number of this sterling magazine.

In the Senate yesterday the Bourbons foolishly let their old prejudices crop out again, by opposing the bill for the relief of colored emigrants. The bill proposes to admit duty free, clothing and other charitable contributions, imported for the relief of and of colored persons, who may have emigrated from their home to other States.
Anything that shows a favor to a dusky skinned man, however worthy bestowed, lashes the old-time Bourbons into anger.

ROBBED HIS FATHER.

SHEBOYGAN, Feb. 19.—August Nicklas, of Appleton, a German about nineteen years old, was arrested here this morning by Officers Sondrock, of this city, and Brill, of Appleton, for stealing $500 in currency from his father. He had most of the money on his person when captured, and owned right up. His chief wish seemed to be to have some fun with the boys.
His father keeps a boarding house at Appleton and is said to be rich.

OBITUARY.

WAUPACA, Wis., Feb. 20.—Mr. P. E.
Steinburg died last night at 12 o'clock. He has resided in this city for several years, and was a popular and highly respected citizen. The cause of his death was the straining of his heart and stomach, occasioned by over-exertion in running to catch a passenger train. This occurred over two months ago, and he has been ailing ever since. His life was insured for $2,000 each in the Odd Fellows and United Workmen companies.

Making Diamonds.

Prof. Nevit Story Maskelyne, of the mineral department of the British Museum, writes the Times announcing the entire success of J. Ballantyne Hannay, of Chicago, a Fellow of the Chemical Society of London, in producing diamonds.
He says Hannay sent him some crystallized particles presenting exactly the appearance of fragments of broken diamonds and these diamonds easily stored deep grooves in the polished surface of a sapphire. Hannay's process will soon be announced to the Royal Society.
In his letter on the subject, Prof. Mask-elyne, after describing the various tests applied, concludes as follows: "There is no doubt whatever that J. Ballantyne Hannay has succeeded in solving the problem, and removing from scientific chemistry the opprobrium so long adhering to it for, whereas, the larger part of the great volume recording the triumphs that science has achieved is occupied by the chemistry of carbon, this element has never been crystallized by man till Hannay achieved the triumph which I have the pleasure of recording."

Inquiries are now being made as to her whereabouts, as there is a considerable amount of property which is awaiting her claim. She was for a time in the Insane Asylum and was discharged as cured, and returned to Milwaukee, but has since disappeared.

—The Madison Journal speaks highly of Miss Guernsey's representations last Thursday night in that city, and among the kindly things says: "There was a large audience, last evening, at the Congressional church, and a highly delighted one, if we may judge from their expressions of pleasure. Miss Guernsey, of course, was the particular star of the evening, and she exhibited a very remarkable dramatic talent, and in her selections showed great versatility of power. Her voice has an unusual range, and is sonorous and solid in the deep notes, and musical and flexible in the higher. Her presence is attractive, and her manner natural and graceful. But her special gift lies in her rare ability to change completely from one character to another in a flash, and to personate perfectly the most widely different characters."

GOOD FOR THE GUARDS.

The Janesville Guards who attended the reception given by the Rockford Rifles last evening, won much praise for their exhibition drill. The Inter-Ocean correspondent says: "The drill of the Janesville Guards was very fine, every movement receiving rounds of applause. Many difficult and fancy figures were executed, among which were the Greek Cross and marching in the diamond." The correspondent pets his local pride however, and credits the Rifles with giving even a better drill.

GUILTY OF BIGAMY.

Ira Henry, of Clinton, whose name has of late been quite frequently presented to the public in connection with accounts of his matrimonial entanglements, was tried at Madison, yesterday, on the charge of bigamy, and was convicted. He is under bail also here to appear before the Circuit Court to answer to the charge of adultery, growing out of the same circumstances which led to his conviction of bigamy.

EVENING ENJOYMENTS.

The Entertainments Promised to the Citizens of Janesville.

Miss Emilie Gavin is to give one of her popular readings with impersonations at St. Patrick's church next Tuesday evening. There is already quite a furore here over her coming, and expectation is on the tip-toe. The press notices which she has everywhere received indicate that she is a remarkable personage, and her name and reputation are so familiar that the public will need little urging to give her a crowd, ed house.

THE REMENYI CONCERT.

Next Wednesday evening at the Congregational church there is to be a treat indeed for the music lovers. Remenyi, whose fame as a violinist is sufficient to draw a large audience, is to be here then, and with him will appear Mrs. Emma Thurston, as soprano, Mr. Edmond De Cella, as tenor, and Mr. Julian Heinze, as pianist. All of these are artists of high order, but of course the interest centers mainly in Remenyi, who has a power which is felt by all who listen to him, holding any audience spell-bound and playing upon their emotions as easily as he moves the bow over the strings. Those who miss this treat will miss much.

FORBES IS COMING.

The dramatic company of which Charles Forbes is the head and front, drew large houses when here before, and all are anxious to greet them again. They give a popular entertainment, and at popular prices. Next Friday evening they will give "Black Diamonds," a sensational four act drama, and Saturday evening they will present that really humorous society drama "Our Boarding House." A Saturday afternoon matinee will also be given, at which "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be played. The Chicago Times says:

Charles Forbes' Black Diamond Combination have just closed one of the most successful week's engagements ever played in this city. The theater has been crowded nightly, by the best citizens of Chicago. The piece abounds in fine situations, with enough variety in it to make it sparkling and brilliant. We feel a little proud of the success of this drama, owing to its being written and dramatized by our townsman, Albert W. Aiken, Esq., which was recently published in the Fireside Companion. The piece is highly sensational, while portions of it are very laughable. The Company first night and evening ladies and gentlemen both off and on the stage.

Mr. FRANK WILKE, La Fayette, Ind., tells us of a man in this city who suffered for a long time with Rheumatism. He was so sick that he could not move; his legs swelled up considerably, and he suffered great pain. After a few applications of St. JACOB'S OIL, the swelling subsided, and all pain left him; he was cured.

PICTURES OF THE TREMONT.

We are in receipt of a very pleasing pamphlet, presenting a very artistic and attractive appearance, and devoted mainly to a description of the Tremont House in Chicago, and illustrations from which one gets a very good idea of that model hotel. It may well be called the palace hotel. Situated in the very heart of the city, with a frontage of 500 feet and an area of 50,000 square feet, and a height of six stories, it is commodious, and in its adornment and furnishings it is elegant. The book before us presents full page views of the hotel and its interior, several of its departments, and these are accompanied by a concise and readable description of the hotel from roof to basement. Mr. John A. Rice knows just how a hotel ought to be run, and in the pamphlet which he sends us there is the mark of the same enterprise which makes him so successful in his business. It is a work which is so full of beauty as to make it a really center table work, and no one can glance at its pages without being charmed. But better than all else is the fact that the representations of the Tremont are not overdrawn. It don't tell more than the truth, as those who patronize that hotel can testify. It is a model book, and it shows up a model hotel.

Just Look Here!
Catarrhal
POISON!

Wet De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:
1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.
2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of more local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Brounchitis, Leucorrhoea, and Gonorrhoea.
5. That smokes, Douche, Inhalations, and Insoluble Salts, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative ability for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucus wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wet De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony: Cured! Cured! Cured!
W D Woods, 45 Broadway, N. Y., Cured of Chronic Catarrh.
F J Hazzard, 359 Broadway, N. Y., 4 yrs Catarrh.
G L Burch, 443 Broadway, N. Y., 10 yrs Catarrh.
S Benedict, Jr, Jeweler, 67 Broadway, N. Y. (day friend), cured of Chronic Hay Fever.
Mrs. Emma C Howe, 39 W Washington Square, N. Y., cured of 30 years Chronic Catarrh.
Rev Geo A Reis, 169 Jay St, Brooklyn, "It restored me to my ministerial labors." Rev Chas J Jones, New Brighton, S. I. "Worth the cost of the Cure." Rev Alex Ferris, Cairo, N. Y. "It has worked wonders in six cases in my parish." L F Newman, 305 Fulton St, Brooklyn, cured of 4 years Chronic Catarrh.
Miss J Swartz, Jr, 200 Warren St, Jersey City cured of 18 years Chronic Catarrh.

A Real Cure for this terrible malady, is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering, since vaccination. Wet De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all druggists, or delivered by D H Dewey & Co, 45 Bay St, N. Y., for $1.50 a package. To Cures, six packages for $7.50. Dr. Wet De Meyer's Treatise, with full explanations and overwhelming proofs, is Post-paid and sent free to anybody.
